

The Rules of Lair

- 1. I have to play the instruments, however ineptly.
- 2. I have to sing, however flat, off-key or tuneless.
- 3. No premade loops.
- 4. Sound effects are OK.
- 5. Amp sims, doubling, etc. are also OK.
- 6. I do not have to recreate the original note-for-note (like I could!) or impersonate the original singer.
- 7. Once a song is chosen for a particular month it can't be changed (but the recording can certainly be improved as much as possible).
- 8. As few takes as possible. Like one for each track, preferably, because I am exceedingly lazy.
